It is a job seeker's market, so your recruiting role is mission critical, to find the best candidates and snatch them up quickly resulting in great employees and immediate value. You can't be burdened with your current daily grind of reviewing resume stacks or phone calls with candidates only to immediately realize they're a poor fit. Why waste hours every day!?

FirstScreen's AI digital recruiter platform empowers your recruiters to reclaim their day by enabling candidates to self-serve phone screens allowing you to focus on what matters...Stronger relationships, meaningful conversations with true-talent candidates and more diverse candidate pools.

- ✓ Quick & Easy Interview Configuration
Candidates are asked your customized questions in vocalized, automated phone interviews.
- ✓ Automated AI Phone Interviews
Your digital recruiter transcribes and scores every interview for easy candidate review.
- ✓ Assessment w/ Artificial Intelligence
Our real-time, patented rating engine identifies your true talent based on your role needs.
